WHERE IT ALL COMES TOGETHER

There's never been a better time for SNX, the new, in-person forum dedicated to dialogue and education between producers and suppliers. Designed to complement SNAXPO, this groundbreaking, experiential approach will facilitate meaningful discussions, discovery and decision-making—which in turn leads to product innovation, efficiencies and growth.

SUPPLIER SUITES

Meet with key industry innovators in a private venue for conversations about products, sourcing, operations, supply chain efficiency, sustainability and other relevant topics.

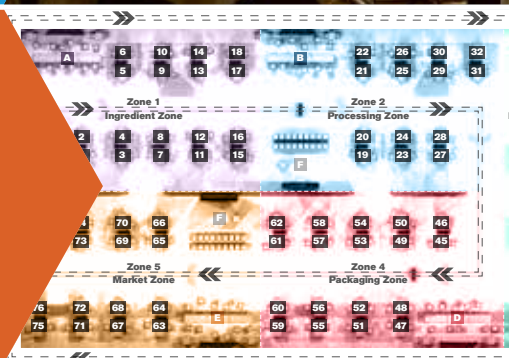

EDUCATION ARENA

Engage with keynote speakers addressing the hottest topics in snacks and emerging industry trends vital to your success.

EXPERIENCE ZONES

Walk through the entire manufacturing process of a snack, from raw materials to finished product—including ingredients, processing, flavor, packaging and marketing.

COLLABORATION KIOSKS

Approach top suppliers within the Experience Zones with your biggest questions and most pressing challenges at any time. No sign-up required.
